2018 Domaine Des Remizieres Hermitage Cuvée Emilie

Brought up all in new barrels, the deep purple-colored 2018 Hermitage Cuvée Emilie is a stunner in every sense. This cuvée comes from the Les Grandes Vignes region of Hermitage with a small part from the Les Rocoules. Thrilling crème de cassis, crushed rocks, white flowers, graphite, and hints of toasty oak all flow to a powerful, deep, opulent Hermitage that has sweet tannins, terrific purity, and a great, great finish. It's going to need just short-term cellaring and have 20-25+ years of longevity.

2017 Domaine Des Remizieres Crozes- Hermitage Cuvée Christophe

The only 2017 presented, the 2017 Crozes-Hermitage Cuvée Christophe comes from older vines (65- to 70-year-old vines) and was brought up in 70% new French oak. Its saturated purple color is followed by a ripe, powerful bouquet of blackberries, blackcurrants, ground pepper, saddle leather, and leafy herbs. With subtle background oak, full body, ripe tannins, and terrific balance, it's a big rich, stacked Crozes Hermitage that will benefit from 2-3 years of bottle age and keep for a decade or more.

2018 Domaine Des Remizieres Crozes- Hermitage Cuvée Christophe Blanc

The 2018 Crozes-Hermitage Cuvée Christophe Blanc (85% Marsanne and 15% Roussanne brought up in barrel) offers a medium gold color to go with a ripe, sexy bouquet of caramelized peach, brioche, white flowers, and honeysuckle. It's rich and powerful, yet has good acidity, nicely integrated oak, and a clean, dry finish. Give bottles a year, then drink over the following 2-4 years. It's another food-friendly, beautifully balanced wine from this team.
